

On behalf of the Township residents, Mayor Dan Hayes offered congratulations to the businesses located in Bridgewater that were recognized at the Somerset County Business Partnership Annual Meeting held on December 15, 2014. Middle Earth received the Economic Vitality Award for their decades of community service, providing employment readiness training to disadvantaged youth. Northeast Power Dry also received the Economic Vitality Award for their remarkable growth and their commitment to community. New Jersey American Water was honored with for their investment in New Jersey's infrastructure for water. In the last two years, New Jersey American Water has replaced more than five miles of water main by investing more than $6 million in Somerset County's water infrastructure. One of the largest treatment plants in the system is located in Bridgewater Township.