PROVIDENT BANK

As one of the oldest community banks in New Jersey, Provident Bank ardently believes in "going local." That's why we're proud to sponsor something as innovative and important as Shop Bridgewater. We've been a staple in New Jersey (and now Pennsylvania) since 1839, serving families, individuals, and businesses with free checking and savings, home loans, commercial loans, business banking, cash management, and wealth management services. We're all about local lending decisions and competitive rates. For more than 175 years, we've been a mark of stability, personal service, technological innovation, and, most of all, commitment you can count on. So remember this maxim: Live local. Shop local.
