Council Reports

Councilwoman Rose:

- Attended a Planning Board meeting at which time the plan for the Wawa across the street from Wegman's was approved. The original proposal had 47-variances but the final plan had 23. There was a lot of planning to ensure there was a good buffer which entailed moving one of the buildings a little further west to accommodate the neighbors.

- The planning Board is scheduled to have a special meeting on Thursday, 10/5 because PSE&G would like to put a data center on the golf course at the East end of Route 22. They would also like to put an emergency road into the cul-de-sac on Sebring road.
- Has received proposals for work at the Lane Brokaw house. If everything goes well, we can soon begin to work on putting up a roof and gutters on the house
- We acquired the Hancock house last week

Councilman Kurdyla:

- Stated it is a sad day as Al Shuback passed away around 3-pm today. He served this country for many years at the Korean War and for many years was committed to serving his community. In Bridgewater, he served as a special patrolman, a member of the Martinsville Fire Department and as a veteran, was the post commander of the VFW post in Martinsville. He will be missed.

Councilman Moench:

- Renee Edwards, wife of police officer Jamie Edwards passed away this weekend from ovarian cancer. She has been responsible for the “turn the town teal” annual events, this year being her 3rd. She will be missed.

Councilman Norgalis:

- The 2016 Bulky Trash drop off ended on 9-24. It was well received by the residents. They hope it will continue.
- Attended the Somerset Federation of Republican Woman meeting in which former Bridgewater Police Chief Borden, who is now a Colonel in the Sheriff's Dept, spoke about terrorism and personal safety. He stressed "RUN HIDE FIGHT" as the progressive self-defense steps in an emergency.
- Attended the township sponsored "Stone Soup" celebration including the excellent reading of the book by Mayor Hayes to an attentive assembly of youngsters.
- Attended the Somerset County Alliance for Action meeting. There were numerous speakers with County Engineer Matt Loper covering, in detail, the County capital programs for the next several years.
- Attended the lecture given by Attorney Jeffrey Lehrer entitled, "12 things every developer should know about New Jersey's municipal land use law".
- Attended the County unveiling and dedication of the new historic plaque outside the Old Court House in Somerville.

Future Items:

- The township flu clinics will be held on Oct 17 and 24. Appointments must be made thru the Division of Health.
- Plans to attend the Oct 5th County meeting entitled, "Public Comment Invited on Supporting Priority Investment in Somerset County". This is the third and final phase of the grant series funded by the North Jersey Transportation Planning Authority.

Council President Pedroso:

- Honored to attend the medal award ceremony for veterans at our Bridgewater Commons Mall. Approximately 12 veterans were recognized for their service
- Was honored to meet the president of Portugal, a humble man who spoke well at the NJ PAC about Portuguese-American relations.

Mayor's Report Mr. Naples had no report.

Public Comment On motion of Councilman Norgalis, seconded by Councilman Kurdyla, the meeting was opened to the public

Members of the public wishing to address the Council on any matter will be allowed two minutes to speak, unless there are unusual circumstances.

George Stafford of Wharton, NJ was present as a representative of NJ highlands coalition. He discussed and requested Council support on the following:
