

A general food safety message: The Health Department reminds the community to wash and inspect all fruits and vegetables before consumption for safety. Summer fresh fruits and vegetables can contain naturally occurring bacteria and insects from farm fields, especially organic produce from farms where pesticide and chemical applications are restricted in use.