

This Week at the Farmers Market Sunday, July 23rd at the Bridgewater Library

Bridgewater Welcomes Krakus Deli from Fells Point, New Jersey as a new vendor at the Marketplace. The “Best Polish Deli On the East Coast” will feature PIEROGIES, stuffed cabbage, polish kielbasa and favorite Polish comfort foods! Stop at the market and check the variety and weekly selections.

Cheech's Own Cold Brew Coffee will feature the following drinks:

Traditional Cold Brew

- Aurora
- Eclipse
- Nova

Specialty Drinks

- Aurora Cold Brew Lemonade
- Eclipse Coco Brew

SEE YOU AT THE MARKET!
THE BRIDGEWATER FARMERS MARKET!

Aunt Dee Dee's Baked Goods returns to the Market serving up all of their usual items such as Fresh Fruit Buckles, Cobblers, Brownies and Pretzels. Featured lunch items will include “Stuffed Baked Taters” and “Baked Mac and Cheese.” Wash it all down with a root beer or an orange cream float!

The Bridgewater Township Clean Communities Program will be on hand to distribute “Only Rain Down The Storm Drain” flying discs to all children as supplies last. Stop by the table and complete the Mayors Wellness Campaign “Grocery Shoppers Survey” and receive a free journal to assist in the completion of your Bridgewater Farmers Market Shopping List (as supplies last).

Of course, The Bridgewater Farmers Market will also include a host of select vendors including Stonybrook Meadows (prized meats and pastured hens eggs), Manville Pastry Shoppe (bread, pastry, donuts, danish and rolls), Martenette Farms (produce, fresh cut flowers, herbs and honey), Morganic Farms (herbs), Norz Hill Farms, (Jersey crops, meats, eggs, cookies, pies and breads) and Shibumi Farms (cultivated mushrooms, wild mushrooms, mushroom pot pie, mushroom broth and salads).

This week:

Music and storytelling by Doug Watson of @ArizonaSonGuitars

Coming August 13th – local favorite, “The Green Planet.”

Check us out

Facebook@BridgewaterFarmersMarketNJ