Max Newill Head Coach, BRHS Camp Director

Coach Newill is in his 16th season at Bridgewater-Raritan High School, his 11th as the head coach. In 2010, Newill led BRHS to the NJSIAA North II Group IV Sectional Championship, the first in school history. As a result of his team's efforts, Newill was named the Star-Ledger's Somerset County Coach of the Year. In 2008, his first year as head coach, Newill was named the Courier-News Area Coach of the Year and the Star-Ledger's Somerset County Coach of the Year. In 2015, the Panthers won the Skyland Conference Delaware Division and Newill was named Conference Coach of the Year. Prior to arriving at BRHS, Newill was an assistant coach at Ohio University and played professionally with the Albany-Colony Diamond Dogs and Northeast Aces.

Other Camp Staff Includes:

Evan Seavey - BRHS Varsity Assistant
Mike Trapani - BRHS Freshman Coach
Brian Trapani - BRHS Volunteer Coach
Brian Dilday - Successful Youth Coach in N.C.

THE CAMP

The Bridgewater-Raritan Panther Baseball Camps offer an opportunity for young players to receive quality instruction from some of the top baseball coaches and players in the area. With a very low camper-to-coach ratio, campers receive personalized instruction focused on the development of their skills and a positive mental attitude on the baseball diamond.

The Panther Baseball Camp Coaching Staff develops the instructional and fundamental programs for each of the camps. Campers go through an evaluation and instruction session followed by competitive games each day.

The primary goal of the camp is to improve the baseball skills of each camper while having fun in a relaxed camp atmosphere.

EXTRAS

Campers registering by June 15th will receive a camp t-shirt. Campers attending both sessions will also receive a hat.

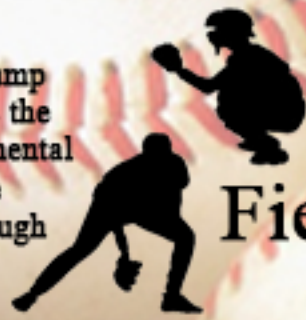

Prizes will be awarded daily.

Pizza will be available for lunch each day. Gatorade will also be available for purchase.

Panther Baseball Camps utilize the state-of-the-art FungoMan and Hack Attack fielding and pitching machines.
